

How many people live in Manama? And how many property owners are there? Who is allowed to enter the city? And what's the density of its population?

Ask the same questions for this "Bahrain" island over here!

Same scale!

They call this a private property (owned by a member of the ruling family)

This is Malkiyya.

How many times of Malkiyya's population

And hey! What's that spot?!

That's THAT!

Nasser Bin Hamad's manor!

How did he get it?!!!

A satellite image of Bahrain, showing a large, flat, arid island with a coastline on the left and right. The word "Bahrain" is written in yellow text at the top center of the image. The island is mostly brown and tan, with some green areas near the coast. A small, dark, irregular shape is visible in the lower right quadrant of the island, which is the location of the Northern City project.

Bahrain

This is the Southern part of the Island...

Can you see any populated
or inhabited areas?

No!

Then why are they reclaiming the sea to build
the Northern City?

Because...

The cost of reclaiming the sea is BD 76 Million!

Who's the chief of beneficiaries?

BINGO!

Tubli Bay (revisited)

... once upon a time
was one of the wealthiest natural
reserves in the middle east.

Its area has been reduced from 25 KM<sup>2</sup>
to 11 KM<sup>2</sup> and is continuing to reduce

The value of the
illegally-distributed
property in this area
is estimated by $ 3 Billion, most of which
is owned by the ruling
family and their people

An island with no
beaches...

All those beaches are forbidden to the
public, for no good reason!

The coastal line of all
Bahrain islands is 161
KM long.

More than 90% of this line constitutes
privately-owned (illegally-possessed)
property.

To accommodate the entire population of Bahrain, all what's required is 35 KM<sup>2</sup>.

Over the past 30 – 40
years, 70 KM<sup>2</sup> of sea
was reclaimed!

This means that the
government can grant
every family a free
piece of land (only
from the dumped sea)!

Are we still
lands-scarce?!!
